

Message from the Editors

I am honored to have been selected to be an Editorial Board member of The International Arab Journal of Information Technology (IAJIT), It's a great pleasure for me to have this opportunity for introducing a reputed, referred, indexed and illustrious journal "IAJIT", and to write this honored message in behalf of the editorial board.

The International Arab Journal of Information Technology (IAJIT) is a specialized, refereed, and indexed journal and has an impact factor of (0.724). IAJIT is published in English at the rate of six issues per year. IAJIT is the official journal of the Colleges of Computing and Information Society (CCIS), stemming from the Association of Arab Universities and published by Zarqa University, Jordan.

For over 15 years, The International Arab Journal of Information Technology (IAJIT) has been a beacon of information technology research. It has long been one of the most influential journals in this field. It's the highest level of ethical integrity, ensuring consistency and scientific rigor in each of its research accepted articles. My desire is for The IAJIT to continue to excel and insightfully build for the future to provide the greatest venue for sharing outstanding science. It is no secret that the landscape of scholarly publishing is quickly changing. The International Arab Journal of Information Technology (IAJIT) remains flexible in attending to the rapidly shifting scientific communication landscape, while also maintaining and intensifying the high standards of academic excellence for which it is known.

I believe the IAJIT will further develop as a flagship for communicating information technology research, all while successfully meeting the evolving needs of its audience.

I sincerely hope that all scientists of information technology will eagerly access our journal IAJIT, as both submitters and readers, for the insightful and information technology research field that will shape our future and lead the way to extraordinary discoveries.

The goal of IAJIT staff is to provide its reader with a new, well-constructed, informative, and educational journal. To keep and get more indexing to IAJIT. To raise its impact factor. To shorten the queue of accepted papers waiting for publications... etc.

The IAJIT journal strongly encourages you to submit novel and enlightening manuscripts to educate and support the growing field of information Technology. It invites contributions from researchers from all over the world. If you wish to submit a manuscript or to view the journal home page, please go to <http://ccis2k.org/iajit/>.

Lastly, I consider it an honor to be with IAJIT team of motivated and qualified editors, look forward to making IAJIT a marquee journal in the field of information Technology.
